THE UNBEATABLE GAME.

A motion picture dramatizing a sermon by Bob Jones, the Evangelist, which sermon is entitled BE SURE YOUR SIN WILL FIND YOU OUT. This film production consists of true incidents and experiences of Rev. Bob Jones. Scenes are as follows:

Opening with approximately four thousand men in a specially constructed tabernacle and he on the pulpit addressing this men's meeting. Following the face of a pure girl comparing with the face of a fallen woman, a gambler, and several drunkards in the front row seats.

Through the scenes, the Reverend Jones is in conversation with a doctor friend describing the story of a man who was wealthy and a libertine. Also reciting a college girl's story who married a brilliant lawyer, showing bridal suite and hospital operation scene. A young man who was rejected by a doctor on account of his father's iniquities. Also an interior church scene with audience and minister on pulpit and exterior church scenes.

The conversation of a society woman seeking spiritual help and reciting her instances of her weakness to Reverend Jones calling on him at a hotel, which shows lobby scenes, dining room scenes and the Rev. Jones and her, in conversation. Also her home scenes with her child and husband and her leaving the house at night and several cut backs to Jones on pulpit through this film production. In closing the sermon, scenes are being converted by coming down to his pulpit and shaking hands with Jones.
